EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

What this assessment covers

At 142 sites across the UK, enquiry routing is handled differently at every location. No unified patient CRM. No central AI response layer. A prospective patient contacting the Birmingham hospital and the Manchester site gets a completely different experience.

GAP ANALYSIS

Three gaps with measurable financial impact

No unified enquiry routing

142 sites, 142 inboxes. Enquiries for surgery, physio and health assessments land in different queues with no central AI layer triaging urgency or routing to the right consultant.

£4.2M

estimated annual revenue lost to slow follow-up across the network

Inconsistent patient comms

Pre-op sequences, appointment reminders and post-treatment follow-ups vary by site. No automated re-booking or patient retention system operating across the group.

31%

of patients don't rebook within 12 months — automatable with the right system

No central AI concierge

Bupa, Circle and HCA all have AI-powered patient portals. Nuffield's inquiry handling still relies on site-level phone and form submission with no 24/7 AI response.

47s

is what Bupa's AI achieves as average first response. Nuffield's average is hours.
